'Without the availability of music libraries, I would never have got to know musical scores. They are absolutely essential for the furtherance of musical knowledge and enjoyment. It is with great pleasure therefore that I lend my support to the prestigious conference of IAML which is being hosted by the United Kingdom Branch in Edinburgh. I am delighted as its official patron to commend the 2000 IAML international conference of music librarians.' ■

Sir Peter Maxwell Davies
Patron: IAML2000

Welcome to Edinburgh

We have great pleasure in welcoming you to join us in the beautiful city of Edinburgh for the 2000 IAML Conference. Events during the week will take place in some of the city's magnificent buildings and Wednesday afternoon tours are based on the rich history of Scotland. The Conference sessions as usual provide a wide range of information to interest librarians from all kinds of library; music is an international language and we can all learn from the experiences of colleagues.

The IAML(UK) planning committee, including many representatives from Scotland, has been working towards this conference for the last three years in order to make sure that your conference is enjoyable and memorable.

Meals

Edinburgh offers truly international cuisine. Your Conference kit contains information on places to eat nearest to the Conference venue. Most restaurants are open until late, and many cafés provide both snacks and full meals. Most restaurants and many cafés are also licensed to serve alcohol. Most eating places serve meals throughout the day, but mealtimes can be summarised as follows:

07:00-09:00	Breakfast
12:00-14:00	Lunch
18:00 onwards	Dinner

City Guides

Visitor guides to Edinburgh and environs are included in your Conference kit. If you have any questions, please ask local IAML members. They know their way around and will be happy to help you.

Monday 7 August is a Bank Holiday in Scotland.

Social Programme

Saturday 5th & Sunday 6th August 2000

For those delegates who arrive on Saturday or Sunday, Edinburgh offers a variety of bus tours which will give you an excellent introduction to the city and a chance to orientate yourself. They are extremely enjoyable and range from a 'jump on, jump off anywhere' eternal circle of the historic centre, to one, two or three hour tours of both the city and the surrounding countryside.

Sunday 6th August 2000

18.00 Playfair Library: Opening Ceremony

Including a formal welcome by our patron, Sir Peter Maxwell Davies CBE, and a performance of his Fanfare composed for the recently-opened extension to the Museum of Scotland.

20.00 Pollock Halls, Holland House South Hall:

Evening buffet and Ceilidh

To be led by the Assembly Players

Monday 7th August 2000

18.00 St. Cecilia's Hall, University of Edinburgh:
Pre-concert tour of the Russell Collection of Early Keyboard Instruments (limited availability)

This collection contains world-famous and uniquely important instruments ranging from the earliest – a Bertolotti virginals of 1586 – to an 1896 Dolmetsch unfretted clavichord.

20.00 St. Cecilia's Hall, University of Edinburgh:
Concert, Lucy Carolan (limited availability)

Lucy Carolan will give a solo harpsichord recital in the oldest concert hall in Scotland, said to be a miniature replica of Parma Opera House. The programme will include late baroque music performed on instruments from the Russell Collection of Early Keyboard Instruments. Sponsored by the Scottish Post Office Board and The Hardie Press.

Wednesday 9th August 2000

On Wednesday 9th August afternoon tours are being offered to show delegates the varied beauties and attractions of Scotland's land and heritage.

14.00-19.00 Wednesday afternoon Tours

Braveheart Excursion Tour

First the film, now the story! We offer the opportunity to experience the reality of this beautiful part of Scotland's heartland. En route, we will pass Mary Queen of Scots' birthplace, Linlithgow Palace, walk over Bannockburn's battlefield where Robert the Bruce won his resounding victory in 1314, see his splendid monument, and visit the Heritage Centre which tells the story. Then we will visit the magnificent, newly-restored Stirling Castle perched on its 80m (250 feet) plug of volcanic rock which dominates the entire upper Forth Valley. We will have our own private guide to the newly restored splendours of Stirling Castle, the historic safe haven for generations of the Scottish royal family, including the romantic Mary, which was also used as a splendid royal residence. From there it is a short walk to Argyll's Lodgings, a magnificent 17th century mansion built by Sir William Alexander of Menstrie, one of the founders of Nova Scotia in Canada.

Dundee Tour – The Wighton Collection of Scottish National Music

Dundee's Wighton Collection is one of the world's finest repositories of Scottish vernacular music, with many rare or unique items from other parts of the British Isles. We will be played into the Central Library by the Abertay Quartet, light refreshments being accompanied by a selection of airs taken from the volumes of the Wighton Collection. In the Library's Steps Theatre, there will be a presentation on the Collection, database and proposed Heritage Centre. These will be illustrated by slides showing key works, live demonstrations of the database and an amazing virtual tour through the Wighton Heritage Centre.

Delegates will leave Dundee via Captain Scott's famous ship at Discovery Point.

Edinburgh Walking Tour

Edinburgh is very rich in the choice of sights to see on foot. Being a very walkable city, the choice of tour is only one of many possibilities. Our tour will proceed down the most ancient and historic street known as the Royal Mile beginning at the Castle Esplanade and ending at Holyrood House, Her Majesty the Queen's own royal palace in Scotland. We will peek into hidden courtyards, glimpse the medieval way of Scottish life, where nobles and townsfolk lived together, drop into St Giles, the High Kirk of Scotland, and look at Parliament Hall and the legal complex where Scottish justice is dispensed. All the while, we will experience the various festivals' street theatre. Many more delights are in store.

Innerpeffray Library and Glenturret Distillery Tour

We travel into Perthshire, through magnificent countryside, to visit Innerpeffray, the first free lending library in Scotland. Founded in 1680, it is a jewel of library history situated in what is now isolated rural splendour on the banks of the River Earn, near the town of Crieff. The collection comprises some 4500 volumes dating from 1502 onwards, 3000 printed before 1801. It is rich in Bibles, the oldest being in French, printed in Antwerp in 1530. The library's borrowing records are complete from 1747 up to 1968 when its lending facility closed – a fascinating record of library lending from the 18th century.

From Innerpeffray it is a short drive through Crieff to Glenturret, the oldest distillery in Scotland dating back to 1775. It produces a range of quality malt whiskies with mellow and distinctive flavours. It will be possible to tour the distillery and folk museum, and experience a tasting of very fine malts.

Waverley Excursion Tour

In the gently rolling Border hills, nestles Abbotsford, the much-loved home of Sir Walter Scott, which is still occupied by his descendants. In his study, the first historical novel was born. To save Abbotsford after his financial crash, Scott wrote his way back to solvency. His inspiration for so many unforgettable stories of Scottish history was sparked by extensive research into earlier historical sources. We will be able to stroll in the grounds before going on to Melrose, home of one of the richest, most famous and important Border Abbeys, established in 1136 for the Cistercians by David I (1090-1154) and associated with saints and monarchs until its destruction in the 16th century. Our guide will relate the story of Robert the Bruce whose heart was brought back from Spain by Sir James Douglas for burial here – and is reputed still to be here. Before leaving, we will visit Priorwood Garden, once the Abbey garden.

19.00 Leith: Scotch Malt Whisky Tasting (limited availability additional-cost tour)

On Wednesday evening, the Scotch Malt Whisky Society's historic club room will be the venue for a very special whisky experience. The Society's rooms will be ours for the whole evening. They are located in Leith, the port for Edinburgh where the Royal Yacht Britannia is moored as a floating museum. We will start with a cold buffet – we are advised that we should not taste the whiskies on offer on an empty stomach! Then, under expert tuition, we will taste some very special whiskies not usually available elsewhere. Whiskies from distilleries all over Scotland, some of which no longer exist except in this limited-amount liquid form. At the end of the evening, there are many restaurants nearby for a late supper. For those opting for the afternoon Edinburgh Walking Tour, Leith is just a bus-ride from the City centre. For those opting for other tours, all coaches will call at the Scotch Malt Whisky Society premises in Leith in time for 19.00.

Thursday 10th August 2000

18.30 Edinburgh City Chambers: Civic Reception

Hosted by Grove's Dictionaries of Music.

20.00 St. Giles Cathedral: Concert, Cappella Nova

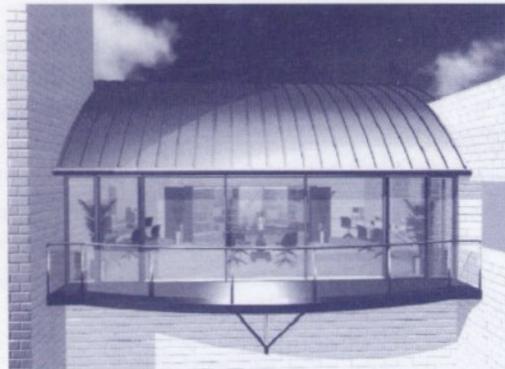

Programme to include Robert Carvor's Mass L'homme armé, Byrd's Mass for 4 voices, and One Star at Last, a setting of a George Mackay Brown poem by Sir Peter Maxwell Davies. This concert is being generously sponsored by Grove's Dictionaries of Music. The written programme will include an exclusive preview of the Carvor article from The New Grove Dictionary of Music and Musicians, second edition, to be published in November 2000.

Willkommen nach Edinburgh

Es ist uns eine Freude, Sie in unsere schöne Stadt Edinburgh zur IVMB Konferenz 2000 einzuladen. Während der Woche werden einige Ereignisse in Edinburghs großartigsten Bauwerken stattfinden, und die Mittwochsausflüge sollen die reiche Geschichte Schottlands widerspiegeln. Wie bisher werden die Konferenzsitzungen vielseitige Information bieten, die Bibliothekare aller Bibliothekszweige interessieren sollte. Musik ist eine internationale Sprache, und wir können von den Erfahrungen anderer Bibliothekare viel lernen.

Seit drei Jahren arbeitet das IVMB Planungskomitee, das auch viele schottische Mitglieder enthält, an der Organisation dieser Konferenz, um diese erfreulich und denkwürdig zu gestalten.

Der 7. August ist ein Feiertag!

Unterhaltungsprogramm

Samstag 5. & Sonntag 6. August 2000

Edinburgh bietet jenen Teilnehmern, die am Samstag oder Sonntag ankommen, verschiedene Bustouren, die eine gute Einführung in die Stadt und eine Chance für Selbstorientierung darstellen. Sie machen Spaß und reichen von der kontinuierlichen Rundfahrt im historischen Zentrum ('steig ein, steig aus wo du willst') zu ein-, zwei- oder dreistündigen Fahrten durch die Stadt und die ländliche Umgebung.

Sonntag 6. August 2000

18.00 Playfair Library: Eröffnungszeremonie

Einschließlich einer formellen Willkommensrede unseres Patrons Sir Peter Maxwell Davies CBE und der Aufführung seiner Fanfare, komponiert für den vor kurzem eröffneten Anbau des Museum of Scotland.

20.00 Pollock Halls, Holland House South Hall:

Abendbuffet und geselliger Abend

Angeführt von den Assembly Players.

Montag 7. August 2000

18.00 St. Cecilia's Hall, University of Edinburgh:

Besichtigung der Russell Collection früher

Tasteninstrumente vor dem Konzert

(begrenzten Platz)

Diese Sammlung enthält weltberühmte und einzigartig wichtige Instrumente von den frühesten – ein Bertolotti Spinett von 1586 – bis zu einem Dolmetsch Klavichord von 1896.

20.00 St. Cecilia's Hall, University of Edinburgh:
Konzert, Lucy Carolan (begrenzten Platz)

Lucy Carolan gibt ein Konzert in der ältesten Konzerthalle Schottlands, angeblich eine Kopie des Parma Opernhauses. Ihr Programm enthält Musik des Spätbarock gespielt auf Instrumenten von der Russell Sammlung. Dieses Konzert ist großzügig von der Scottish Post Office Board und The Hardie Press unterstützt.

Mittwoch 9. August 2000

Am Mittwoch, den 9. August, werden Nachmittagsausflüge angeboten, die den Teilnehmern die abwechslungsreichen Attraktionen und die Schönheit von Schottlands Landschaft und Tradition zeigen sollen.

14.00-19.00 Mittwochnachmittagsausflüge

Braveheart Exkursionstour

Erst der Film, dann die Geschichte! Wir geben Ihnen die Möglichkeit, die Realität dieses schönen Teils von Schottlands Zentrum zu erleben. Während der Fahrt kommen wir an Mary Queen of Scots (Mary Stuart) Geburtsort, Linlithgow Palace vorbei, wandern über das Schlachtfeld von Bannockburn, wo Robert the Bruce im Jahre 1314 seinen großen Sieg errang, sehen sein großartiges Monument und besuchen das Heritage Centre, das seine Geschichte erzählt. Dann besuchen wir das großartige, neu restaurierte Stirling Castle, das auf einem 80m hohen vulkanischen Felsen thront, der das gesamte obere Forth Tal beherrscht. Wir werden die neu restaurierte Pracht von Stirling Castle mit eigenem Privatführer sehen. Die Burg war ein sicherer Zufluchtsort für Generationen der schottischen Königsfamilie, einschließlich der romantischen Mary, und diente als prächtige königliche Residenz. Von hier aus führt ein kurzer Weg zu den Argyll-Lodgings, einem schönen Haus aus dem 17. Jahrhundert von Sir William Alexander von Menstrie gebaut, einem der Gründer von Nova Scotia in Kanada.

Dundee Tour – Die Wighton Sammlung schottischer Nationalmusik

Dundees Wighton Sammlung ist eine der besten von schottischer Volksmusik in der Welt, mit vielen seltenen und einzigartigen Stücken aus anderen Teilen der britischen Inseln.

Das Abertay Quartet wird uns in die Zentralbibliothek begleiten, leichte Erfrischungen und eine Sammlung von "Airs" aus den Beständen der Wighton Sammlung. Im Steps Theatre der Bibliothek wird eine Einführung über die Sammlung, Datenbank und das geplante Heritage Zentrum stattfinden. Diese wird durch Diapositive illustriert, die die Hauptwerke, Demonstration der Datenbank und eine erstaunliche Tour durch das Wighton Heritage Zentrum zeigen.

Die Teilnehmer werden Dundee nach der Besichtigung von Kapitän Scotts berühmten Schiff "Discovery Point" verlassen.

Edinburgh zu Fuß

Edinburgh hat eine große Auswahl an Sehenswürdigkeiten, die zu Fuß zugänglich sind. Für einen Fußgänger bietet die Stadt außer dieser Tour viele andere Möglichkeiten. Wir werden durch die älteste und geschichtlich wichtigste Straße, die Royal Mile, wandern. Sie beginnt an der Castle Esplanade und endet in Holyrood House, Königin Elizabeths eigenem königlichen Palast in Schottland. Wir werden einen Blick in verdeckte Höfe werfen, sehen ein Stück mittelalterlicher schottischer Lebensweise, wo Adel und Volk zusammenlebten, besuchen St. Giles, die High Kirk von Schottland, die Parlamentshalle und den Justizbereich, wo schottisches Recht ausgeübt wird. Die ganze Zeit über werden wir das abwechslungsreiche Straßentheater des Festivals erleben. Viele andere Vergnügen sind noch vorgesehen.

Innerpeffray Bibliothek und Glenturret Distillery Tour

Wir fahren nach Perthshire, durch herrliche Landschaft, um Innerpeffray, die erste freie Leihbibliothek Schottlands zu besuchen. 1680 gegründet, ist sie ein Juwel der Bibliotheksgeschichte. Sie liegt in ländlicher Idylle an den Ufern des Earn in der Nähe der Stadt Crieff. Die Sammlung enthält etwa 4500 Bände von 1502 ab, 3000 Bände sind vor 1801 gedruckt. Sie hat eine reiche Bibelsammlung, die älteste auf französisch 1530 in Antwerpen gedruckt. Das Ausleihregister ist von 1747 bis 1968 komplett, bevor Ausleihen eingestellt wurden – eine faszinierende Dokumentation der Ausleihe seit dem 18. Jahrhundert.

Von Innerpeffray aus führt eine kurze Fahrt durch Crieff nach Glenturret, der ältesten Distillerie in Schottland, gegründet 1775. Sie stellt eine Anzahl von Qualitäts-Maltwhiskies mit mildem und ausgeprägtem Geschmack her. Wir können die Distillerie und das Volkmuseum besichtigen und die sehr guten "Malts" probieren.

Waverley Ausflugstour

Abbotsford, das vielgeliebte Haus des Sir Walter Scott, liegt in den sanft welligen Hügeln der Borders Region. Es wird noch von seinen Nachfahren bewohnt. In seinem Studio wurde der erste historische Roman konzipiert.

Scott schrieb hier unablässig, um Abbotsford nach seinem finanziellen Ruin zu retten. Seine Inspiration für so viele unvergessliche Geschichten aus schottischer Geschichte kam von seiner weitreichenden Erforschung früherer geschichtlicher Quellen. Wir werden in seinem Park spazieren gehen können, bevor wir in Melrose die reichste und berühmteste Abteien der Borders besuchen. Sie wurde 1136 von David I (1090-1154) für den Zistersienser Orden gegründet und ist mit den Namen von Heiligen und Königen bis zu ihrer Zerstörung im 16. Jahrhundert verknüpft. Unser Führer wird uns die Geschichte des anderen Braveheart, Robert Bruce, erzählen, dessen Herz von Sir James Douglas aus Spanien gebracht und hier beigesetzt wurde – und es soll angeblich noch immer hier sein. Vor der Rückfahrt werden wir Priorwood Garden besuchen, der früher der Abteigarten war.

19.00, Leith: Scotch Malt Whisky Probe (Bezahlung extra und mit begrenzten Sitzplatz)

Am Mittwochabend wird der historische Raum der Scotch Malt Whisky Gesellschaft der Schauplatz für ein ganz besonderes Whiskyerlebnis sein. Wir haben die Räume der Gesellschaft den ganzen Abend. Sie liegen in Leith, dem Hafen von Edinburgh, wo die "Royal Yacht Britannia" als schwimmendes Museum verankert ist. Wir beginnen mit einem kalten Buffet – laut Ratschlag sollen wir die angebotenen whiskies nicht auf nüchternen Magen trinken! Dann werden wir mit experter Unterweisung einige sehr besondere whiskies kosten, die normalerweise nicht erhältlich sind. Die whiskies stammen aus Destillerien aus ganz Schottland, von denen einige nicht mehr, außer in dieser flüssigen, begrenzten Form, existieren. Am Ende des Abends gibt es viele Restaurants in der Nähe für ein spätes Abendbrot. Für diejenigen, die die Edinburgh Tour zu Fuß machen, liegt Leith nur eine kurze Busfahrt vom Zentrum entfernt. Für jene, die andere Touren mitmachen, werden alle Busse rechtzeitig zurückkehren, um 19.00 Uhr in Leith bei der Whisky Society anzukommen.

Donnerstag 10. August 2000

18.30 Edinburgh Rathaus: Zivilempfang

Betreut von Grove's Dictionaries of Music.

20.00 St Giles Kathedrale: Konzert, Cappella Nova

Das Programm enthält Robert Carvors Messe L'homme armé, Byrds Messe für vier Stimmen und One Star at Last von Sir Peter Maxwell Davies nach einem Gedicht von George Mackay Brown komponiert. Dieses Konzert ist großzügig von Grove's Dictionaries of Music unterstützt. Das gedruckte Programm wird eine exklusive Vorschau von Carvor-Artikeln in The New Grove Dictionary of Music and Musicians, 2. Auflage, Erscheinungsdatum November 2000, enthalten.

Freitag 11. August 2000

16.15 McEwan Hall: Orgelvorspiel

Bienvenue à Edimbourg

Nous avons le grand plaisir de vous inviter à vous joindre à nous dans la belle ville d'Edimbourg pour le Congrès 2000 de l'AIBM. Les manifestations prévues au cours de la semaine se dérouleront dans quelques uns des magnifiques bâtiments de la ville et les excursions du mercredi après-midi s'inspirent de la riche histoire de l'Ecosse. Comme d'habitude, les sessions du congrès offriront aux bibliothécaires un large éventail d'informations professionnelles, quelle que soit la bibliothèque où ils travaillent ; la musique est une langue internationale et nous pouvons tous profiter de l'expérience de nos collègues.

Le comité d'organisation de l'AIBM(UK), qui comprend de nombreux représentants d'Ecosse, prépare ce congrès depuis trois ans afin qu'il vous soit agréable et mémorable.

D'abord le film, ensuite l'histoire ! Nous vous proposons de découvrir l'essence de cette belle région du centre de l'Ecosse. Au cours de ce voyage, nous passerons par le lieu de naissance de Marie Stuart Reine d'Ecosse, le palais de Linlithgow, nous promènerons sur le champ de bataille de Bannockburn où Robert le Bruce a remporté sa glorieuse victoire en 1314 et verrons son splendide monument ainsi que l'Heritage Centre où l'on nous racontera l'histoire de ce grand personnage. Nous visiterons ensuite le magnifique château de Stirling, récemment restauré, perché sur son culot volcanique de 80m de hauteur et qui domine toute la vallée supérieure de la Forth. Un guide attitré nous révélera les splendeurs du château de Stirling, «asile sûr» pour des générations de la famille royale écossaise, y compris la célèbre reine Marie Stuart, mais également somptueuse résidence royale. A quelques pas du château se trouvent les 'Argyll's Lodgings', magnifique maison du 17e siècle qui a été construite par Sir William Alexander of Menstrie, l'un des fondateurs de Nova Scotia au Canada.

Excursion à Dundee – La Collection Wighton de la Musique Nationale d'Ecosse

La Collection Wighton, à Dundee, est l'un des plus beaux fonds de musique nationale écossaise au monde et conserve de nombreuses pièces rares ou uniques d'autres régions des îles britanniques. Le Quatuor Abertay nous accueillera en musique à la Bibliothèque centrale où une légère collation nous sera servie, accompagnée d'un choix d'airs tirés de la Collection Wighton. Elle sera suivie, dans l'amphithéâtre Steps de la bibliothèque, d'une présentation de la Collection, de sa base de données et du projet d'Heritage Centre, illustrée de diapositives des œuvres majeures, de démonstrations en direct de la base de données et d'une incroyable visite virtuelle du Wighton Heritage Centre.

En quittant Dundee, les participants passeront par le célèbre navire du Capitaine Scott, Discovery Point.

Visite pédestre d'Edimbourg

Edimbourg propose de très nombreux sites à parcourir à pied. Ville idéale pour les piétons, l'excursion choisie n'est qu'une des nombreuses options qui s'offrent au visiteur. Nous partirons de l'Esplanade du château pour ensuite descendre la rue la plus ancienne, l'historique Royal Mile, jusqu'à Holyrood House, le palais royal écossais de la Reine d'Angleterre. Nous jetterons un coup d'œil dans des cours dérobées, vision fugitive de la vie quotidienne de l'Ecosse médiévale où les nobles et les habitants de la ville se côtoyaient, passerons par la Cathédrale St. Giles, «Grande Eglise» d'Ecosse, et visiterons Parliament Hall et les tribunaux écossais. L'ensemble de notre promenade sera égayée de scènes de théâtre de rue dans le cadre de l'Edinburgh Festival. D'autres surprises vous attendent.

Excursion à la Bibliothèque d'Innerpeffray et à la distillerie Glenturret

Nous parcourerons le Perthshire, avec son merveilleux paysage, pour visiter Innerpeffray, la première bibliothèque de prêt gratuite d'Ecosse. Fondée en 1680, cette bibliothèque est un véritable joyau dans l'histoire des bibliothèques, maintenant isolée à la campagne sur la rive de l'Earn, près de la ville de Crieff. La collection compte environ 4500 volumes remontant jusqu'en 1502, dont 3000 imprimés avant 1801. La collection de bibles est importante, la plus ancienne, en langue française, ayant été imprimée à Anvers en 1530. Le registre des prêts de la bibliothèque est complet de 1747 jusqu'à 1968, date à laquelle son service de prêt a cessé, et constitue de fascinantes archives de prêt en bibliothèque depuis le 18e siècle.

D'Innerpeffray, il n'y a qu'un court trajet par Crieff jusqu'à Glenturret, la plus vieille distillerie d'Ecosse datant de 1775 et qui produit une gamme de whiskies pur malt de qualité aux parfums mûrs et distinctifs. Il sera possible de visiter la distillerie et le musée d'histoire locale, et une dégustation d'excellents whiskies pur malt sera proposée.

Excursion Waverley

Nichée dans les douces collines de la région sud-est de l'Ecosse se trouve Abbotsford, la maison bien-aimée de Sir Walter Scott, toujours occupée par les descendants de ce grand personnage. C'est dans son cabinet de travail que naquit le premier roman historique. Pour sauver Abbotsford après sa faillite personnelle, Scott s'est mis à écrire afin de retrouver sa solvabilité. Son inspiration pour tant d'inoubliables récits de l'histoire écossaise fut le fruit de recherches minutieuses dans d'anciennes sources historiques. Nous pourrons nous promener dans le parc avant de poursuivre notre route vers Melrose, où se trouve l'une des abbayes les plus riches, les plus célèbres et les plus importantes du Sud-Est de l'Ecosse. Elle a été fondée en 1136 pour les Cisterciens par David Ier (1090-1154) et son histoire est intimement associée à celle de saints et de rois jusqu'à sa destruction au 16e siècle. Notre guide nous racontera l'histoire de cet autre «Braveheart», Robert the Bruce, dont le cœur a été rapporté d'Espagne par Sir James Douglas pour être enterré ici – et est censé toujours y être. Avant de partir, nous visiterons le jardin de Priorwood qui fut jadis celui de l'abbaye.

19.00 Leith: Dégustation de whisky écossais pur malt (disponibilité limitée; prix en sus)

Le mercredi soir, le salon historique de la Société Ecossaise de Whisky Pur Malt sera le théâtre d'une initiation très particulière au whisky. Les salles de la Société seront à notre disposition pour toute la soirée. Elles sont situées à Leith, le port d'Edimbourg, où est amarré le yacht royal Britannia, musée flottant. Nous commencerons par un buffet froid – on nous a conseillé de ne pas goûter le whisky avec l'estomac vide! Ensuite, sous la direction d'un vrai connaisseur, nous dégusterons des whiskies rares qu'on ne trouve pas ailleurs normalement. Ces whiskies proviennent de distilleries de toutes les régions d'Ecosse dont certaines n'existent plus, sauf sous cette forme liquide dont la quantité est limitée. A la fin de la soirée, il y a de nombreux restaurants alentour si vous souhaitez manger tard. Ceux qui auront choisi l'excursion pédestre de l'après-midi pourront se rendre facilement à Leith en prenant l'autobus en centre ville. Pour les participants aux autres excursions, tous les autocars passeront par les locaux de la Société Ecossaise de Whisky Pur Malt à Leith avant 19.00.
