National Sound Archive

Catalogue

Tips on searching

The catalogue includes entries for almost two-and-a-half million recordings held in the British Library National Sound Archive (NSA) and is updated daily. It is one of the largest catalogues of its kind anywhere in the world, covering both published and unpublished recordings in all genres from pop, jazz, classical and world music, to oral history, drama and literature, dialect, language and wildlife sounds.

You can confirm the existence of recordings and compile lists and discographies. At present the catalogue does not enable you to listen to or download sounds to your computer but it can be used to help you make use of the NSA's services. You will find all the information you require to make a listening appointment. Make a note of the call (reference) number which appears at the foot of the entry. Then contact our Listening & Viewing Service or Recorded Sound Information Service by phone or in person to arrange an appointment.

You will also be able to place orders for copies of recordings - please be aware of the charges and the copyright restrictions that apply to this service.

The catalogue does not contain data about every single recording in the collection and some subject areas are better represented than others. If you are unable to find a particular recording or there is something you don't understand, please contact us either by email or by telephone/letter.

On-screen HELP is available at every stage of your search. Tips on searching have been prepared by each subject curator. You can also contact them directly via their web pages.

A selection of BBC Sound Archive material is held in the NSA and included in the catalogue but there is no general access to data on BBC radio collections. You will need to contact us directly by email, phone or letter if your enquiry concerns a BBC radio programme that does not appear in the catalogue.

Search Catalogue

[SIMPLE
SEARCH](#)[ADVANCED
SEARCH](#)

☒ Keyword ☐ Begins with (last name, title, etc.) ☐ Exact

[SEARCH
EVERYTHING](#) NAME TITLE SUBJECT PLACE

Quick tips

The catalogue has its own navigation buttons. Do not use the "Back" button on your browser.

To search the complete text of every catalogue entry:

1. Select "Keyword"
2. Enter any combination of words and/or numbers in the search field
3. Select "Search Everything"

To refine your search try adding another keyword. Terms may be combined with AND, OR, NOT.

Use the dollar symbol for variant endings, e.g. ENGL$ for ENGLAND, ENGLISH, etc.

Alternatively, limit your search by using the "Name", "Title" or "Place" buttons. See "Advanced Search" for more options.

Use "Begins with" to find names or titles that begin with your search term.

Use "Exact" to find records that match your search term exactly.
