OUR SPONSORS

It is my pleasure to welcome to Kraków the participants of the 2019 International Association of Music Libraries, Archives and Documentation Centres Congress.

We are honoured that you have decided to host the prestigious annual event in our city. Kraków is privileged to receive so many excellent guests.

I trust that Kraków, a city open to the world, will fulfill your expectations, offering a special background to the Congress. I also hope that you will spend your free moments, enjoying Kraków's many charming spots and attractions. Do make friends with our city; its beauty and unique heritage, and I am convinced you will want to visit us again.

Wishing all Congress participants a successful conference and fruitful debates, I also hope that you will enjoy the concerts you are to experience in Kraków.

Best wishes,

Jacek Majchrowski

Mayor of Kraków

Ladies and Gentlemen,

I am honoured to invite you to the 2019 Congress of the International Association of Music Libraries, Archives and Documentation Centres organised by the Jagiellonian University and its Institute of Musicology. The aim of the 2019 IAML Congress is to share the experiences and present the achievements of academic librarians, archivists and musicologists who are members of the Association.

At the Jagiellonian University, the oldest academic institution in Poland and one of the oldest in Europe, music – in the wider scholarly sense – has been taught for a long time. The University is also home to the oldest book collection in Poland – the Jagiellonian Library. Many of its music-related manuscripts – gathered ceaselessly for centuries – form one of the richest music collections in Poland. The city of Kraków has been an important centre of musical culture, both in history and in modern times.

Ladies and Gentlemen, I am pleased to learn that the Congress is well attended and that its participants come from music research centres from all over the world. Let me wish you many fruitful discussions and express the hope that the Congress will be an opportunity for you to learn more about the cultural heritage of Kraków, to experience the city's beauty, and to acquaint yourselves with the history and traditions of the Jagiellonian University, in which the musical culture has always played an important role.

Prof. dr hab. Wojciech Nowak, MD

Rector

Dear Honored Guests,

It is our great pleasure to welcome you to the annual Congress of the International Association of Music Libraries, Archives and Documentation Centres (IAML). This year, we are meeting in Krakow, a city with a unique historic centre which attracts millions of tourists from around the world every year. The host institution of the Congress is the Jagiellonian University, the oldest Polish university founded in 1364.

The members of the Organizing Committee are very proud to host IAML Congress in Poland for the third time and to welcome participants from all over the world. We invite delegates to take part in a rich programme of professional sessions, workshops, and various accompanying events – concerts, tours, and a special exhibition of music collections of the Jagiellonian Library, which has been prepared with the dedicated commitment of our Partner Institutions.

We encourage you to review the distributed congress materials and to explore publications dedicated specifically to the participants of the IAML Congress 2019.

We hope that the Congress will be a great opportunity to familiarize the visitors with Polish musical culture. We also believe that concerts organized in the most beautiful historic churches of Krakow will prove to be an unforgettable experience.

The Organizing Committee of IAML 2019

DIGITAL IAML

Thursday 18 July 2019

As part of the 2019 IAML Annual Congress, a series of sessions will be hosted on Thursday 18 July focused on digital tools and technologies related to music libraries. This event will enable attendees of all skill levels to learn and build together during a mix of workshops focused on Digital Tools for Music Libraries followed by participant-led unconference sessions. The unconference will provide a space and platform for attendees to share digital projects, tools, and programmes, as well as works in progress or ideas. The day will provide attendees with hands-on introductions to and skill-building in a variety of areas related to libraries and technology, learning in a collaborative, interactive, informal, spontaneous and productive environment.

EXHIBITION IN THE JAGIELLONIAN LIBRARY

From theoretical treatises to musical masterpieces –
musical collections in the Jagiellonian Library through the ages

The Jagiellonian Library, Exhibition Hall

12–26 July 2019

The exhibition organized with the financial support of the Municipality of Krakow and available in electronic version in the Krakow Library.

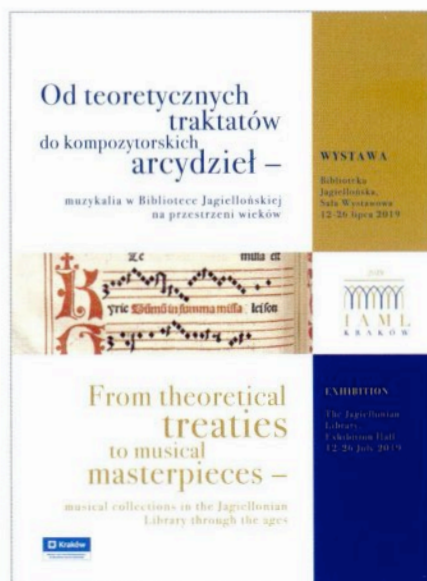

Opening: 12 July 2019, 12:00

Exhibition open: Monday–Friday:

10:00–18:00 (15–19 July 2019)

10:00–15:00 (22–26 July 2019)

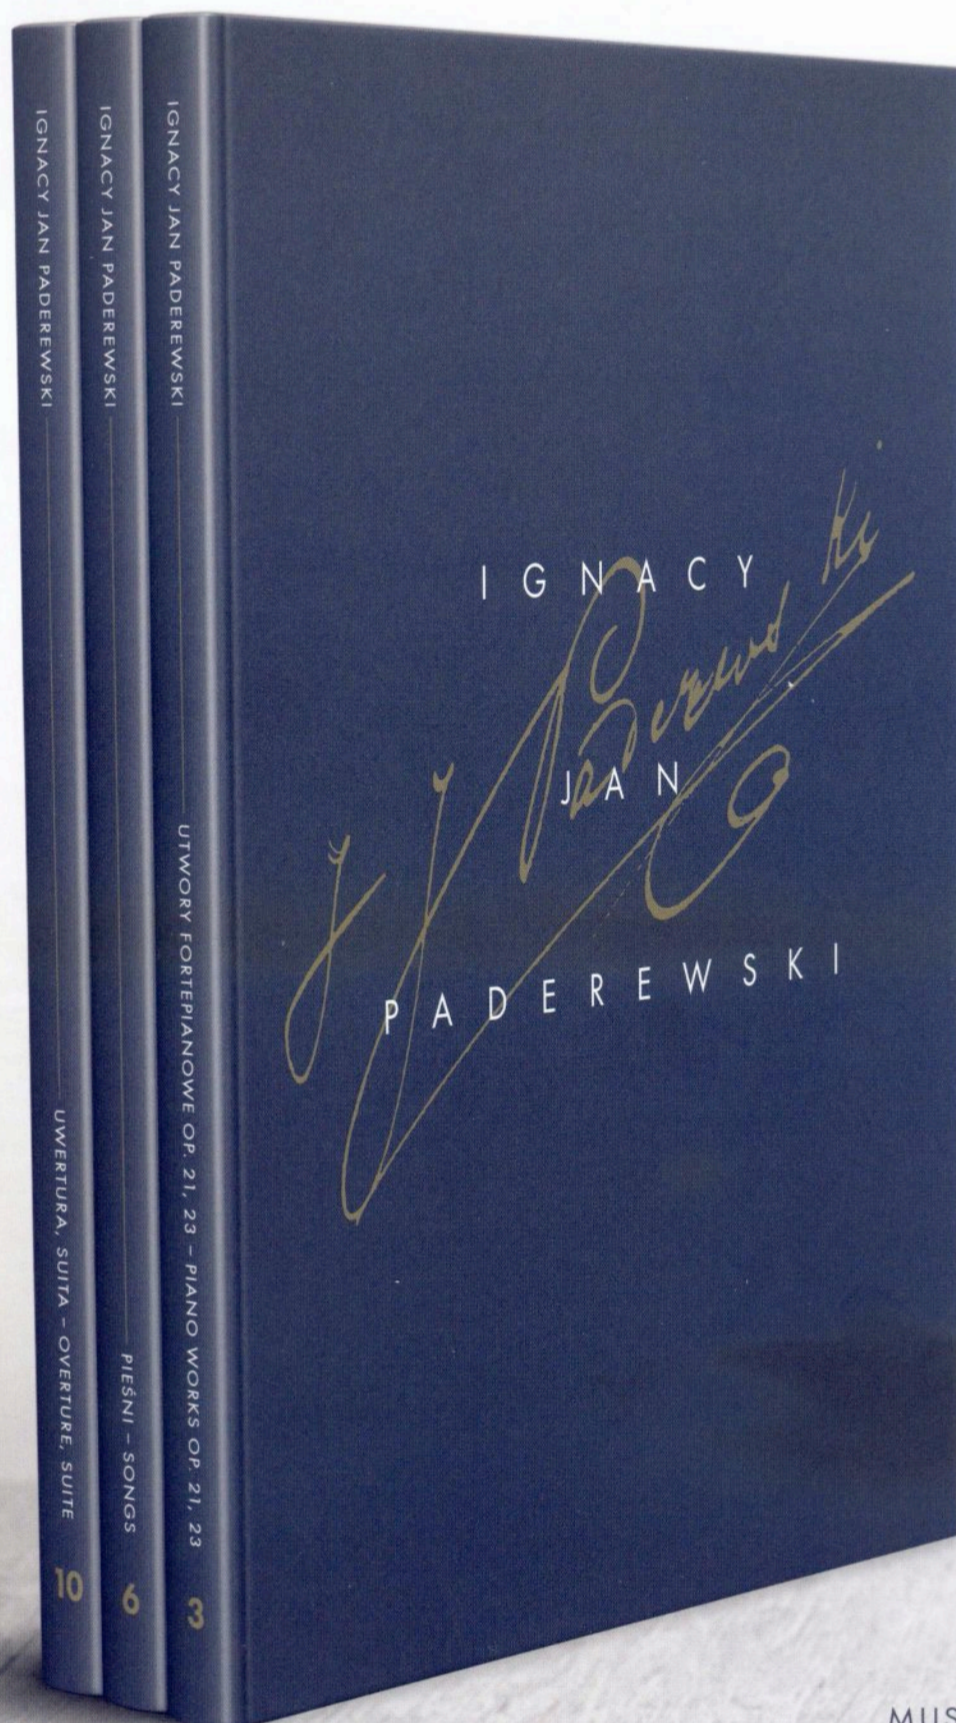

The exhibition has been organized on the occasion of the Congress of the International Association of Music Libraries, Archives and Documentation Centres IAML 2019. The exhibition aims to present a selection of particularly valuable and interesting musical manuscripts and printed books with music, stored within the walls of the Jagiellonian Library. Musical objects were apposed and shown in such a way as to illustrate a chronology of acquisition and growth of the collection as well as to show historical changes in the profile of the amassed collection. It was particularly intended to expose some specific features of the music collection that owes its nature to: 1. a strict, innate connection between the Library and a didactic and a research activity of the university; 2. the notion of the Jagiellonian Library in the Polish tradition, at least from the 19th century, as being a Bibliotheca patria – a homeland library, that was to preserve treasures of Polish national culture; 3. the fact that musical objects stored in the library are of great importance not only for local, but also for European and world's music culture.

WEDNESDAY TOURS

Wednesday 17 July, 14:00–18:00

Meeting point: Auditorium Maximum, Entrance (at 14:00)

1. Musical Kraków WALKING TOUR

---

Krakow – the seat of the royal court, and the city of churches and monasteries, has a long musical history. A small part of it will be presented during the “Musical Cracow” tour. The route will start at the church of the Holy Cross, situated next to the no longer existing monastery of the Holy Spirit, where the famous sixteenth-century organ tablature comes from. Several works from this tablature will be played on the re-constructed pipe organ there. Along the route, there will be the churches of Piarists, Jesuits, Dominicans and Poor Clares, which are known from their rich musical life. Then, the tour will reach the Wawel Hill and the Cathedral, where the royal cappella and other musical ensembles with well-known composers (such as Franciszek Lilius or Bartłomiej Pękiel) used to perform. Finally, the visitors will walk along the boulevards of the Vistula River to the Pauline Church “on the Rock” (Na Skałce), where – next to many famous figures – Karol Szymanowski is buried.

2. Royal Kraków WALKING TOUR

The route covering the distance from the medieval Barbican to the Wawel Castle is a “must see” for all visitors to Krakow. The Royal Road goes along Floriańska Street to the Main Square (Rynek Główny) and then leads down Grodzka Street to the Wawel Hill with the old royal residence and the Cathedral. Along the Royal Road, you can admire historic townhouses and churches, such as the most famous one – St Mary’s Church, known from the largest gothic altar in the world and the trumpet melody played hourly from the highest tower, and others of exceptional architecture, like the Baroque Church of Saints Peter and Paul, and St Andrew Church built in Romanesque style. The tour ends with visiting the Wawel Hill.

3. Rynek Underground WALKING TOUR

The Main Square (Rynek Główny) is located in the heart of Krakow. It is one of the largest medieval town squares in Europe, surrounded by the historic townhouses. The St Mary's Church with two iconic towers, the Cloth Hall (Sukiennice), and the Town Hall Tower are the most famous symbols of old Krakow's architecture. Walking through the square, one may not realize that under the ground there is a museum presenting the remains of an old city. Since its creation, the level of the Market Square has raised, in some places by over 5 metres (16 ft). The "Rynek Underground" tourist route, featured with models and multimedia, leads between the stone and brick walls of the cellars of former trading sites, presenting not only Krakow's rich history, but also the connections between the city and mediaeval Europe's chief centres of trade and culture.

4. Wieliczka Salt Mine BUS TOUR

The Wieliczka Salt Mine is one of the most exceptional places in the world. It was founded in the 13th century and runs continuously until today. In 1978 it has been included in the first UNESCO list of the World Heritage Sites. The mine offers the possibility to see magnificent chambers and chapels chiseled out in rock salt, underground saline lakes, timber constructions and unique statues sculpted in salt. The Chapel of St Kinga, decorated by chandeliers made of salt crystals, is the most beautiful and the largest chapel in the mine. It is worth knowing that the temperature underground ranges between 14° and 16° C and there are 800 steps to climb, with the first 350 leading down into the mine.

5. Zamek Pieskowa Skała / Ojcowski Park Narodowy BUS TOUR

Pieskowa Skała Castle is one of the most beautiful and best preserved castles in Poland. It is located in the Ojców National Park, about 25 km from Krakow. Since the fourteenth century, it had functioned as a castle guarding the trade route from Krakow to Silesia, being part of a chain of fortifications called the Trail of the Eagles' Nests. In the mid-sixteenth century it was rebuilt in the Renaissance style. Currently, it houses a museum that is a branch of the Wawel Royal Castle – State Art Collection. The castle delights with arcaded cloisters, loggia with a clock tower, gothic tower and, above all, a picturesque location. The nearby terrace offers a magnificent view on the reconstructed garden terraces and the Prądnik Valley with a characteristic limestone rock, called Maczuga Herkulesa (Hercules' Cudgel).
