Branch activities

Autumn Seminar 2020 was held in the Estonian Academy of Music and Theatre, November 20, with 22 participants. The main programme included a lecture on electroacoustic music held by Margo Kõlar, the professor of the music academy and composer, supplemented by live music performances by his students and a guided tour to the different recording studios of the academy. In addition to the lecture there was a great opportunity to visit the rehearsal of the symphony orchestra of the academy in the new academy concert hall with excellent acoustics and the dress rehearsal of the academy opera studio in the also new Black Box Theatre.
