Depending on the total budget available, you may be offered either full or partial funding. An offer will be made as soon as possible, and a deadline for acceptance will be given. Some flexibility may be possible where there are difficulties in securing part funding or visas; in these cases it is very important to stay in touch with the organisers.

If you are successful in obtaining IAML support, you will be asked for a report about the situation of music libraries in your region to be added to the IAML webpage and a short report to be included in the congress diaries. IAML will also be grateful if you publish a report of the congress in a relevant journal in your own country.

I have read the guidelines for applicants and confirm that I wish to apply for support from the IAML Outreach Fund.
