View Description Download Print

The photograph shows a young man in a light-colored, short-sleeved shirt and shorts standing on a small, dark, rectangular platform or boat in a body of water. He is holding a long-handled net or fishing gear. A young woman is lying on the ground in the water, looking up at him. The background is a dense thicket of reeds or tall grasses. The image is framed by a white border with a small thumbnail on the left and a toolbar at the top.
