IAML CONSTITUTION

Showing present text (left column) and revised text (right column)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Present text</th>
<th>Revised Text</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Article I - Name and Headquarters</td>
<td>Article I – Name and Headquarters</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. The name of this Association shall be the International Association of</td>
<td>1. The name of this Association shall be the International Association of</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Music Libraries, Archives and Documentation Centres (IAML), hereinafter</td>
<td>Music Libraries, Archives and Documentation Centres (IAML), hereinafter</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>referred to as the Association.</td>
<td>referred to as the Association.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. The headquarters shall be established at the office of the Secretary</td>
<td>2. The headquarters shall be established at the office of the Secretary</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>General.</td>
<td>General.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Article II – Purposes</td>
<td>Article II – Purposes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. The Association is an international organization of institutions and</td>
<td>1. The Association is an international organization of institutions and</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>individuals.</td>
<td>individuals.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. As an independent, non-governmental, non-profit-making organization, it</td>
<td>2. As an independent, non-governmental, non-profit-making organization, it</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>shall have the following purposes:</td>
<td>shall have the following purposes:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>a) To encourage and promote the activities of libraries, archives and</td>
<td>a) To encourage and promote the activities of libraries, archives and</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>documentation centres concerned with music and music materials, to strengthen</td>
<td>documentation centres concerned with music and music materials, to strengthen</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>cooperation among institutions and individuals working in these fields and to</td>
<td>cooperation among institutions and individuals working in these fields and to</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>publish information concerning their work.</td>
<td>publish information concerning their work.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>b) To promote a better understanding of the cultural importance of music</td>
<td>b) To promote a better understanding of the cultural importance of music</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>libraries, archives and documentation</td>
<td>libraries, archives and documentation</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
centres both nationally and internationally
c) To support and facilitate the realization of projects in music bibliography, music documentation and music library science at national and international levels.
d) To promote the availability of all publications and documents relating to music, including particularly to encourage international exchange and lending.
e) To encourage and support the development of standards in all areas that concern the Association.
f) To promote the availability of suitable professional education and training
g) To further the bibliographical control of music materials of all kinds.
b) To support the protection and preservation of musical documents of all periods.
i) To cooperate with other organizations in the fields of librarianship, bibliography, archival science, documentation, music and musicology.
j) To arrange an annual international congress of its members.
k) To publish an official journal dealing with all matters of professional interest.

1. The Association consists of three categories of members:
institutional members, individual members and honorary members.
a) The following may be institutional members: music
libraries, music archives, music documentation centres, sound recording libraries and sound archives, publishing firms and dealers, as well as other institutions and organizations wishing to further the goals of the Association.
b) The following may be individual members: all persons
wishing to further the goals of the Association.
c) The following may be elected honorary members of the

Article III – Members

1. The Association consists of three categories of members:
institutional members, individual members and honorary members.
a) The following may be institutional members: music
libraries, music archives, music documentation centres, sound recording libraries and sound archives, publishing firms and dealers, as well as other institutions and organizations wishing to further the goals of the Association.
b) The following may be individual members: all persons
wishing to further the goals of the Association.
c) The following may be elected honorary members of the <table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Association by the General Assembly: all persons who have rendered notable service to the Association.</th>
<th>Association by the General Assembly: all persons who have rendered notable service to the Association.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2. Any individual member or representative of an institutional member may hold office in the Association.</td>
<td>2. Any individual member or representative of an institutional member may hold office in the Association.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Article IV – Dues

The membership dues shall be determined by the General Assembly.

Article V – Administration

The Association shall be governed by the General Assembly and the Board.

The General Assembly

1. The General Assembly shall comprise all the members, and shall be held once a year, during the Association’s congress. The General Assembly shall receive annual reports from the President, the Secretary General, the Treasurer, projects undertaken jointly with other bodies, editors of the Association’s publications, representatives to other bodies or organizations, and from others as requested by the Board. The agenda shall be prepared by the Secretary General and the General Assembly shall be chaired by the President.

   2. The General Assembly shall have the right to make fundamental decisions that relate to the operational issues and aspirations of the Association, and to any challenges it faces. Its powers shall include:
      a) approval of the Treasurer’s report and the budget for the coming year, increases in dues, and any exceptional expenses
      b) committing the Association to any contractual obligation, on recommendation of the Board
      c) appointment to the positions of Secretary General, Treasurer, editor

   2. The General Assembly shall have the right to make fundamental decisions that relate to the operational issues and aspirations of the Association, and to any challenges it faces. Its powers shall include:
      a) approval of the Treasurer’s report and the budget for the coming year, increases in dues, and any exceptional expenses
      b) committing the Association to any contractual obligation, on recommendation of the Board
      c) appointment to the positions of Secretary General, Treasurer, of a IAML publication and any others that involve payment of a stipend, on recommendation of the Board.

d) election of honorary members, on recommendation of the Board
e) the establishment or dissolution of any new commission, professional branch, committee, subcommission or working group, on recommendation of the Board
f) changes to the Constitution and Rules of Procedure
g) the location and timing of future congresses, on recommendation of the Board.

3. When voting at the General Assembly, each individual, honorary and institutional member shall have one vote. It is the responsibility of institutions to designate their representatives. A personal member may also cast a vote as an institutional member. Apart from resolutions relating to changes to the Constitution (see Article IX), all resolutions shall be adopted by a simple majority of the votes. Proxy votes on issues brought to the attention of members before the General Assembly shall be permitted from members unable to attend.

4. At a General Assembly the Chair of the Constitution Committee, or other officer who is not chairing the meeting, shall advise and rule as necessary on matters of procedure.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>The Board</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>5. The Board shall be the executive committee of the Association. The Board shall consist of the President, the President-Elect or Past-President, the four Vice-Presidents, the Secretary General and the Treasurer.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6. The Board shall at its discretion make and implement decisions when not specifically limited by the Constitution.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7. The Board shall normally meet at least twice a year, once during the annual congress and once midway between congresses. Five members shall</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The Board

5. The Board shall be the executive committee of the Association. The Board shall consist of the President, the President-Elect or Past-President, the four Vice-Presidents, the Secretary General and the Treasurer.

6. The Board shall at its discretion make and implement decisions when not specifically limited by the Constitution.

7. The Board shall normally meet at least twice a year, once during the annual congress and once midway between congresses. Five members shall constitute a quorum.

8. The President and the Vice-Presidents shall be elected by the members of the Association. Every member of the Association shall have the right to nominate candidates for the offices of President and Vice-President. The Board shall encourage nominations reflecting the diversity of the Association’s membership.

9. Elections for President and Vice-President shall be held every three years. The President shall be elected to serve for six years, one year as President-Elect, three years as President, and two years as Past-President. A President may not be re-elected. Vice-Presidents shall be elected for a three-year term, and may be re-elected, but may not serve more than two consecutive terms.

10. If the President resigns or dies in office during the first or second year in that office, the Board shall appoint one of the Vice-Presidents Acting President. If the death or resignation occurs during the President’s third year in office, the President-Elect shall become President. If the President-Elect resigns or dies before assuming the Presidency, the Board shall appoint one of the Vice-Presidents Acting President-Elect. When one of the Vice-Presidents becomes Acting President or Acting President-Elect, or if a Vice-President resigns or dies in office, the Board shall appoint a replacement Vice-President from the members of the Association. All Acting appointments must be confirmed at the next General Assembly.

11. The Secretary General and the Treasurer shall be appointed by the General Assembly from the members of the Association for a specific term.

12. The President shall be the principal officer of the Association and shall represent it in legal matters and in contacts with other organizations.

13. The Secretary General shall be responsible for the administrative and organizational work of the Association. The Treasurer shall administer the Association's funds. They shall both report to the Board and the General Assembly. They shall consult with the President on all matters of policy.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Article VI - National and Multi-national Branches</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. The members residing in a country may form a National Branch of the Association. Members from more than one country may form a Multi-national Branch.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. The principal purpose of the National and Multi-national Branches shall be to accomplish at branch level such tasks as the Association undertakes internationally and to collaborate in all the activities that the Association deems necessary, as well as to serve national needs in areas that concern the Association.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. National and Multi-national Branches shall submit their constitutions to the Association. They shall not conflict with that of Association.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. A Forum of National Representatives shall advise the Board on matters of national concern and other issues facing the Association.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5. It shall be the duty of each National and Multi-national Branch to designate one representative to the Forum of National Representatives, and to inform the Secretary General in advance of the meeting of the Forum. A country without a National or Multi-national branch may, with the Forum's agreement, be represented in the Forum by a national delegate; members intending to attend under this provision should inform the Secretary General in advance of the meeting of the Forum. Individual countries within Multi-national branches shall not be entitled to separate representation in the Forum. Each National and Multi-national Branch shall submit to the Secretary General an annual summary report of its activities, which shall be made available electronically to members of the Association before the congress.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Moved to the revised Rules of Procedure VII.2-3.
6. The Forum shall meet during the annual congress. The meeting shall be chaired by a Vice-President, with one of the national representatives serving as Secretary. Agenda items for the meeting may be proposed by any member of the Forum. Board members are welcome to attend.

Article VII - Professional Branches, Subject Commissions, Working Groups, Committees and Joint Commissions

1. To advance the work of the Association, the Board shall establish permanent or temporary groups as defined below. The Board shall periodically review the work of these groups and shall recommend to the General Assembly that they be discontinued when appropriate.

2. The Professional Branches unite members working in the same professional field or type of institution in order to allow them to exchange information and to discuss common concerns and developments. Normally they shall meet during the annual congresses in open sessions. Each Professional Branch shall elect its Chair and other officers.

3. The Subject Commissions are concerned with specified areas of activity, such as bibliography, cataloguing, service and training. Normally, they shall meet during the annual congresses in open sessions. They may propose the formation of Working Groups. Each Subject Commission shall elect its Chair and other officers.

4. Study Groups may be formed to address narrowly defined issues of ongoing importance to the parent section. They are created on the recommendation of the relevant Section, and require approval by the Board and General Assembly.

5. Institutional Sections shall be concerned with issues particular to different types of institutions, such as research libraries, public libraries etc. Sections shall be open to all members and have no fixed membership.

Article VII – Institutional and Subject Sections, Study Groups, Project Groups, Committees, Subcommittees and Joint Commissions

1. To advance the work of the Association, the Board shall establish permanent or temporary groups as defined below. The Board shall periodically review the work of these groups and shall recommend to the General Assembly that they be discontinued when appropriate.

2. Terms of reference shall be created for each Section or Group, Committee and Subcommittee and maintained in a separate document that can be modified by a simple majority vote of the General Assembly.

3. Institutional Sections shall be concerned with issues particular to different types of institutions, such as research libraries, public libraries etc. Sections shall be open to all members and have no fixed membership.
4. Working Groups may be formed to carry out specific assignments. They are responsible for the preparation of reports, resolutions and publications of the Association, based on proposals of the Subject Commissions, the Professional Branches or the Board. Working Groups shall be discontinued when the assignment is completed. They must be reauthorized every three years by the General Assembly. Chairs of Working Groups shall be appointed by the Board, in consultation with the chair of the parent Commission or Professional Branch.

5. Committees may be established to advise the Association on administrative and legal matters. In principle, they shall deal with questions of interest to the whole Association. Chairs of Committees shall be appointed by the Board.

6. Project Groups may be formed to carry out specific assignments within a finite timeframe. They are created on the recommendation of the relevant Section and require approval by the Board and the General Assembly.

7. Committees may be established to advise the Association on issues of interest and relevance to the whole Association. They are created on the recommendation of the Board and require approval by the General Assembly. A Constitution Committee shall be established to advise the Association on matters of governance, and a Publications Committee shall be established to provide general oversight and coordination of all of the Association’s publications.

8. Subcommittees may be formed to address narrowly defined issues that fall within the scope of the parent Committee. They are created on the recommendation of that Committee and require approval by the Board and the General Assembly.

9. Joint Commissions may be formed between IAML and other organizations. IAML members on such commissions shall represent the interests of the whole Association and shall be appointed by the Board.

10. Joint Commissions may be formed between IAML and other organizations. IAML members on such commissions shall represent the interests of the whole Association and shall be appointed by the Board.

7. A Forum of Commissions and Professional Branches, consisting of the Chairs of these groups, shall oversee the planning of the annual congress programme and advise the Board on other matters relating to their particular areas of interest.

8. The Forum shall meet during the annual congress. The meeting shall be chaired by the Vice-President designated by the Board as the Association’s Programme Officer, with one of the other attendees serving as Secretary. Agenda items for the meeting may be proposed by any member of the Forum.

Moved to the revised Rules of Procedure VII.4.
Forum. The Secretary General shall be an ex-officio member of this Forum; other Board members are welcome to attend.

Article VIII – Finances

Subject to the requirements of this Constitution, the Rules of Procedure and the decisions of the Board, all income—dues, grants, gifts and legacies, or any other revenue—and expenditure of the Association shall be managed by the Treasurer.

Article IX – Changes

The Constitution may be changed only by a two-thirds majority of the General Assembly. Proposals for changes must be supported by at least five members. Such proposals must reach the Secretary General not later than six months before the meeting of the General Assembly. They must then be reviewed by a Constitution Committee and the Board and circulated to members for comment for a period of at least four weeks. The final version to be voted on shall be distributed to the membership no less than one month before the General Assembly.

Article X – Relationships with other organizations

To further common interests the Association may enroll as a member of, or seek affiliation or enter into formal collaboration with, international organizations pursuing similar objectives in the fields of librarianship, bibliography, archival science, documentation, music and music scholarship.

Article XI - Rules of Procedure

The implementation of this Constitution and the management of the Association shall be determined by the General Assembly, on recommendation of the Board, in Rules of Procedure. Changes in the Rules of Procedure may be made following the same process as changes in the Constitution.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Article XII - Publications</th>
<th>Article XII - Publications</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. The official journal and any other periodical issued by the Association shall be sent to each member regularly and free of charge. The Editors of these publications shall be appointed by the General Assembly, on recommendation of the Board, for a specific term.</td>
<td>1. The official journal and any other periodical issued by the Association shall be sent to each member regularly and free of charge. The Editors of these publications shall be appointed by the General Assembly, on recommendation of the Board, for a specific term.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Other publications issued by the Association shall require the approval of the Board.</td>
<td>2. Other publications issued by the Association shall require the approval of the Board.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Article XIII - Dissolution</th>
<th>Article XIII - Dissolution</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. The Association may be dissolved only by a meeting of the General Assembly expressly convened for this purpose and with a two-thirds majority of the votes cast.</td>
<td>1. The Association may be dissolved only by a meeting of the General Assembly expressly convened for this purpose and with a two-thirds majority of the votes cast.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. In the event of the dissolution of the Association its property shall pass, in accordance with the aims stated in Article II, to a recognized cultural institution in the field of music bibliography, music librarianship, or the like.</td>
<td>2. In the event of the dissolution of the Association its property shall pass, in accordance with the aims stated in Article II, to a recognised cultural institution in the field of music bibliography, music librarianship, or the like.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Article XIV - Languages and Interpretation</th>
<th>Article XIV - Languages and Interpretation</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. The official languages of the Association shall be English, French and German.</td>
<td>1. The official languages of the Association shall be English, French and German.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. This Constitution and the Rules of Procedure shall be published in these languages. In case of dispute, the English text shall be authoritative.</td>
<td>2. This Constitution and the Rules of Procedure shall be published in these languages. In case of dispute, the English text shall be authoritative.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>